119TH CONGRESS
1ST SESSION

H. R. _____

To direct the United States Trade Representative to prioritize North American alignment on foreign investment review during the next joint review conducted under the United States-Mexico-Canada Agreement.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Mr. ARRINGTON introduced the following bill; which was referred to the Committee on _____

A BILL

To direct the United States Trade Representative to prioritize North American alignment on foreign investment review during the next joint review conducted under the United States-Mexico-Canada Agreement.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4 This Act may be cited as the “Consistency in Foreign 5 Investment in the United States-Mexico-Canada Agree-
6 ment Act” or the “CFIUSMCA Act”.

1 SEC. 2. NORTH AMERICAN ALIGNMENT ON FOREIGN IN-
2 VESTMENT REVIEW.

3 (a) SENSE OF CONGRESS.—It is the sense of Con-
4 gress that—

5 (1) Canada and Mexico are the two largest
6 trading partners of the United States, with bilateral
7 goods and services trade between the United States
8 and each such country reaching approximately 9 $1,000,000,000,000 in 2024;

10 (2) the United States–Mexico–Canada Agree-
11 ment (USMCA) underpins much of the trade re-
12 ferred to in paragraph (1) and promotes a strong
13 North American supply chain that supports millions
14 of good-paying jobs in the United States;

15 (3) given the close economic relationship be-
16 tween the United States, Mexico, and Canada under 17 the USMCA, ensuring that each party has robust in-
18 vestment review mechanisms in place is important
19 towards strengthening the collective national security
20 interests of those countries;

21 (4) the Committee on Foreign Investment in 22 the United States plays a critical role in protecting
23 the national security of the United States by review-
24 ing foreign investments for national security risks;
25 and

1 (5) the establishment or modification by Mexico
2 and Canada of legislative and regulatory frameworks
3 to review foreign investments for national security
4 risks that are similar to the framework established
5 under section 721 of the Defense Production Act of 6 1950 (50 U.S.C. 4565) would—

7 (A) advance the national security interests
8 of the United States; and

9 (B) allow for closer coordination between 10 the USMCA countries with respect to shared
11 threats from investments in strategically impor-
12 tant economic sectors and critical infrastructure
13 in North America.

14 (b) JOINT REVIEW NEGOTIATION OBJECTIVE.—Sub-15 ject to the requirements of section 611 of the United 16 States-Mexico-Canada Agreement Implementation Act (19 17 U.S.C. 4611), during the first joint review conducted after 18 the date of the enactment of this Act, the Trade Rep-
19 resentative shall advocate for—

20 (1) each USMCA country to implement a legis-
21 lative and regulatory framework for reviewing for-22 eign investment for national security risks that is 23 similar to the framework established under section
24 721 of the Defense Production Act of 1950 (50 25 U.S.C. 4565); and

1 (2) the establishment of a mechanism for
2 USMCA countries to coordinate to address shared
3 threats from investments in strategically important
4 economic sectors and critical infrastructure in North
5 America that is overseen by the Trade Representa-
6 tive, Secretary of State, and Secretary of the Treas-
7 ury and provides a forum for each USMCA country
8 to—

9 (A) implement this mechanism;

10 (B) enhance communication and coopera-
11 tion among the USMCA countries related to 12 shared threats from foreign investment;

13 (C) facilitate the development of consistent
14 foreign investment screening practices and 15 standards among the USMCA countries;

16 (D) exchange information on shared
17 threats from investments in strategically impor-
18 tant economic sectors and critical infrastruc-
19 ture;

20 (E) notify the other USMCA countries of 21 investments in strategically important economic 22 sectors and critical infrastructure; and

23 (F) identify, consult, manage, and resolve
24 existing or proposed foreign investments in one

1 USMCA country determined to pose a national
2 security risk to another USMCA country.

3 (c) TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE.—In carrying out sub-
4 section (b)(1), the Trade Representative shall coordinate 5 with the Secretary of the Treasury and the Secretary of 6 State with respect to the provision of technical assistance
7 to USMCA countries to support the establishment or 8 modification of frameworks for reviewing foreign invest-
